(P4C) IN THE OUTDOORS

SAPERE ACCREDITED LEVEL 1 TRAINING COURSE

Wednesday 18 October 2006

&

Wednesday 29 November 2006

Venue: St Martin's College, Ambleside

Places available at £100

(Places on this course are subsidised by DFID's Going Global in the Outdoors Project, led by CDEC)

Students taking part in an outdoor activity session, followed by the generation of philosophical questions

Using Philosophy for Children in an outdoor setting

Cumbria Development Education Centre is incorporating learning from its successful project 'Going Global in the Outdoors' to offer this extended SAPERE accredited level One course in Philosophy for Children.

Participants will receive:

- A series of handouts
- Membership of SAPERE (Society for the Advancement of Philosophical Enquiry and Reflection in Education) until 31 March 2007. As you will be attending a Level One course in the second half of the subscription year (1 Oct - 31 March), you will be entitled to continue your membership for the following subscription year at half price, provided you return your form with payment of £10 within a month of this course.
- Level One accreditation on completion of a short review of an enquiry undertaken after the course.

Please note that attendance on both days is required.

Course Leaders:

Gina Mullarkey (CDEC) and
Chris Rowley (St Martin's College)

WHAT CHILDREN SAY ABOUT P4C.....

*I found it interesting and I learnt a lot. I learnt how to take part in a discussion and listen more to other peoples' point of view.
(Year 5)*

*I have learnt to think about things that have been said before I say something instead of saying something completely different to what has been said.
(Year 6)*

AND THE QUESTIONS THEY ASK.....

Does the aim of making something better justify the destruction?
(Year 9)

Do trees have souls?
(Year 5)
